GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
Ministry of Finance
Department of Expenditure

.....
New Delhi, the 16th August, 1967.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject : Fixation of pay of S.A.S. Accountants on deputation against excluded posts of Assistants.

.....
The undersigned is directed to say that in terms of this Ministry's O.M. No.F.10(24)-E.III/B/60 dated 29.8.1966, the pay of a Government Servant on deputation/foreign service to an ex-cadre post which carries a lower scale of pay has to be fixed in the scale of the post to which the Government

Servant is transferred under the normal rules and orders. In partial modification of this O.M., the President is pleased to decide that S.A.S. Accountants while on deputation to the excluded posts of Assistants under the various Ministries may be allowed to retain their S.A.S. scales as personal to them without any deputation allowance and it will not be necessary in their cases to fix their pay in the scale of the post of Assistant. This order will apply to all future deputations of S.A.S. Accountants and past cases will not be reopened. Existing deputationists will also be governed by these orders.

2. In so far as the employees of the Indian Audit & Accounts Department are concerned, these orders have been issued after consultation with the Comptroller & Auditor General.
